MIA AIR

AIR PURIFIER HEPA H14

MIA AIR

New generation of fresh air technology

We spend 90% of our lives indoors and yet indoor air quality is 10 times more polluted than outdoors. This can lead to health problems and lowers our quality of life. Specifically designed to clean air pollutants, MIA Air offers superior indoor air quality that will improve the quality of life.

MIA Air continuously measures the air quality without affecting the ambient temperature. This improves the quality of life by continuously cleaning the indoor air at a frequency varying according to the size of the room and the amount of pollutants.

It is one of the highest capacity devices with the ability to clean a room of 100 m² (1075 sqft) on average 2* times per hour.

*The average ceiling height is considered as 3 meters (9,843 ft).
